- Sexual harassment of any kind
- Offensive comments about religion, beliefs, culture, age, gender or sexual orientation
- Aggressive behaviour towards staff, students or visitors (e.g. shouting at other individuals inappropriately, kicking furniture, etc.)

- Vandalism (e.g. deliberately breaking school furniture, computers, graffiti etc.)
- Any behavior which undermines core British values

If a student experiences or witnesses bullying or abusive behavior, they should contact a member of staff immediately. These are primarily:

- Our Teachers or Welfare Officers
- The Directors of Studies
- The Principal or Operations (all found on the 3rd floor)

If a teacher experiences or witnesses bullying or abusive behavior, they should contact the relevant Director of Studies, who will, if necessary, involve the Principal. When the relevant Director of Studies and, if necessary, the Principal have been notified, an appropriate course of action will be decided.

Cases of abusive behaviour may result in disciplinary action in the case of staff or, in the case of students, termination of their course with no refund.

Important: It is the school's decision if a student's behaviour is unacceptable or not. If a student's behaviour is unacceptable and they have not heeded verbal warnings given by LSI Portsmouth staff, the school will give them a written warning. If unacceptable behaviour occurs again, the school will order the student to leave the school and their accommodation (if arranged by LSI Portsmouth) immediately with no refund of any fees.

Please note that the school may order the student to leave the school and their accommodation immediately with no refund of fees and no written warning if the behaviour is very serious in the school's opinion.

If you are not happy with the school's response over a bullying or abusive behaviour incident, please contact our national association, English UK (please visit www.englishuk.com for details of their complaints procedure).
