Cancellation Terms

For General English Students:

Before Starting a Course:

- If we receive notice of cancellation before the start of the course, all tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded less 10% of tuition fees or £300 deposit, whichever is the higher.
- If we receive notice of postponement for a General English course less than one week (five working days) before the start of a course, you will lose the £300 deposit and will be required to pay another deposit before we can confirm a new start date.
- If you are waiting for a visa and think that you may be delayed, you must let us know at least 1 week before your planned start date or you may lose your £300 deposit and have to pay another £300.
- If your visa application is refused for a General English course, all accommodation and tuition fees will be refunded (less irrecoverable costs e.g. bank charges and CAS fee if applicable) but only when we have seen a copy of the visa refusal letter. The £80 registration fee is non-refundable in any case.

After Starting a Course:

- If a student, due to exceptional circumstances, needs to terminate his/her course prematurely, it is LSI Portsmouth's policy that all tuition fees are non-refundable once the course begins.
- Accommodation fees will be refunded subject to 1 weeks' notice for homestay accommodation and 4 weeks' notice for self-catering accommodation. These fees will be refunded to the person who paid for the accommodation and not necessarily to the student
- If you have a Student Visa, accommodation fees will only be refunded if you show us documentary evidence that you are enrolled and sponsored by another UK institution or have booked and paid for a flight home. Refunds are usually made to the person who paid the fees (not necessarily to the student). Bank charges are at your expense.
- LSI Portsmouth reserves the right to ask students to leave the school without refunding tuition fees in the event of misconduct, criminal behaviour or serious attendance problems. Please see the school's website for our disciplinary procedures.
- Unacceptable behaviour in accommodation arranged by the school may result in students being asked to leave – we cannot guarantee that we will be able to find suitable, alternative accommodation.
